

OLLA PODRIDA

A GERMAN AFRICAN COLONY

the vicar preached, referring to the 400 persons, who were to be employed in the new railway, as the joyful families in the neighborhood in the hour of the coming of a new lord of the manor. His effect on the congregation was so great that while "my lord" was very generous in what he had been well if he had obtained from me, regarding that so much drunkenness was the result of this, and the organization of the agricultural class, who probably did the preacher what it mattered to him, and the result of it was for the vicar's liberality would have to wait a long time.
